Dear Prof. Kim,

As a University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) supporter, Huawei Technologies is pleased to make a pledge in the amount of $ 50,000 to support the "Systematic Code Change" project led by Prof. Miryung Kim in the Department of Computer Science.

The total payment 50,000 (USD) shall be made within 15 days from the Effective Date. Effective date is defined as the date the final signature on agreement.

All Taxes levied on the University or Huawei shall be borne by either Party respectively in accordance with the applicable tax laws and/or regulations in the People's Republic of China or United States.

If required by the laws of People's Republic of China, Huawei shall have the right to deduct any withholding taxes imposed in the People's Republic of China on any payment to be made by Huawei to University from Consideration on behalf of University. Upon University's request, Huawei shall submit to University official taxes receipts as such.

Notwithstanding the above, the total funding amount is 50,000 USD (including relevant China withholding taxes), and the payment to be received by University is 50,000 USD. If it is necessary to adjust total payment amount due to China withholding taxes, amount changes resulting from China tax law and regulation variation in future, Huawei may propose to enter into supplementary agreement.

As is customary with universities and other non-profit organizations across the country, a one-time administrative fee is applied to each gift in order to provide essential support necessary to UCLA's overall operation. The fee is currently 6.5%.

Huawei technologies makes no claims on the basis of this gift to any ownership or other beneficial interest in any work producing resulting from this gift. Nonetheless, we would appreciate being kept of the progress of the research.

We would appreciate your return of the copy of this gift letter as an acknowledgement of understanding. It gives us satisfaction to know that we are playing a vital role in advancing UCLA's mission of research, education, and public service. We look forward to seeing the progress of your research.

Sincerely,

RM
